AN "ILL-ADVISED JOURNEY."

Cruise of the U. S. Fleet.

WASHINGTON, April 24.
"A dangerous and expensive sensation," is what United States Senator Bacon, of Georgia, called the voyage of the battleship feet in a speech on the floor of the Senate.
He said that Americans were not wont to have naval parades around the world and that the journey was ill-advised and should be terminated.

The Senator was loud in his denunciation of the extravagance of the navy and of the President.

It is announced at the Navy Department that Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas will take command of the battleship fleet on May 9.

THE BATTLE ARENA OF THE FUTURE.

An "Indiscreet" Governor.

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, April 20.
Governor Gillet, California's chief executive, in welcoming the battleship feet at a formal reception and dinner today, said that America must fulfil its mission in the Pacific ocean. In that ocean, he said, the greatest battles of the future are to be fought, and the United States must be up and ready for the fray if she would hold her place in the galaxy of Powers.

The press of New York and of Washington condemn the utterances of Governor Gillet as indiscreet but the San Francisco papers see no indiscretion in them.

The fleet is being feted and toasted in San Diego and Coronado while hundreds of the men on shore leave have gone to Los Angeles, Pasadena and near-by cities.
San Diego is thronged with visitors from all over the United States, San Francisco sending thousands to view the ships.

$10,000 EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE.

Two Glasgow Lawyers Arrested.

Two leading citizens of Glasgow were on March 21st arrested on a serious charge of embezzlement, by which, it is stated, the Royal Infirmary of the City may "suffer seriously."

The gentlemen in question are Mr. Henry Lamond and Mr. J. Stuart Lang, partners of the legal firm of Messrs. Lamond, Lang and Company. The charge is that, while acting as law agents on the estate of the late Andrew Wilson, they embezzled the sum of £10,000.

The interesting part of the story from the public point of view is that under the trust in question the managers of Glasgow Royal Infirmary were the residuary legatees.
Mr. Lamond was for a number of years secretary and law agent to the infirmary, a post to which he succeeded on the death of his father many years ago, and relinquished only a few weeks ago, when another appointment was made. Since the beginning of the year rumour has been busy in connection with the affair. The infirmary authorities were, it is stated, unaware that the property had been left to them.

Mr. Lang, the other prisoner, was until a month or two ago a magistrate of the Burgh of Partick.

The two accused were taken before the Sheriff, who fixed bail at £2,000 in each case. As the money was not forthcoming, both men were removed to gaol.

"The Navy means for you your existence as an Empire; it means for you the fact that you are free from invasion; it means for you your daily food and daily employment. The Navy is all in all and everything; therefore, though the cost is great, it is little compared with what it brings back to you." Lord Selborne (late First Lord of the Admiralty), February, 20, 1904.

An interesting report has recently been issued by the Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal Commission on the progress made and the expenditure incurred to July 1, 1907. The report states that $9,000,000 has thus far been expended, of which $8,350,000 has gone in providing buildings, machinery, and general preparatory work, medical equipment, and sanitary measures. Most of the actual excavation has been done on the Culebra division of the canal.

AN ALLEGED ROOSEVELTIAN ROSE.

WASHINGTON, April 21.
A section of the Democratic Press of the United States accuses President Roosevelt of urging his naval programme for the construction of four battleships and eight cruisers solely for the purpose of frightening his countrymen into an appreciation of his worth. These papers incline to the belief that Roosevelt really desires to be nominated for the presidency with a view to running again.

U. S. EASTERN CONSULATES.
Buildings to be Erected.
WASHINGTON, April 21.
The appropriation for the building of American consular buildings in the Orient has been passed. Senator Gallon was its sponsor and Secretary of War Taft aided Secretary of State Root in urging its passage.
The structures planned for are to be in Shanghai, Hongkong, Yokohama, Cebu, Manila, Nagasaki, and other parts of China, Japan and Korea.
The amount is $1,375,043, which is to be included the purchase of land and the erection of Consulates in the sixteen leading commercial ports of these countries.

ENGLISH RULE IN INDIA.
Success Without Assimilation.
"It is possible for English rule in India to endure without any complete assimilation of rules and rules," says the "Pioneer."
"Sympathy and friendship can exist even where there is a difference in ideals." After all it is the ties that bind men in our life and it may be said that our difficulties in India are not so much difficulties of Swadeshi and Swadeshi as of manners. The true intercourse will only come when both parties learn instinctively to put themselves in each other's place. There are faults, of course, on both sides. On our side, we are too much inclined to put ourselves in our own place. There are faults, of course, on both sides. On our side, we are too much inclined to put ourselves in our own place.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1908.

THE TERRITORIAL ARMY.ALBION Mr. Haldane's Territorial Army scheme has received the sanction of Parliament, and is at the present time being carried into operation, it still meets with criticism. Mr. Arnold Forster, an ex-War Lord, continues to assail the scheme and claims that what is really required is an expansion of the Regular Army. While it would be, no doubt, desirable to increase the regular force it is to be borne in mind that there are two obstacles to carrying out this object in a direct manner. The first is the increasing reluctance with which recruits come forward. In the second place the nation does not regard with favour any increase in the cost of the defence forces. We are not of opinion that the politicians who demand that there should be economy in military expenditure, regardless of the effect of such economy upon efficiency, represent any large section of the people of Great Britain. The great majority, we feel assured, recognise the obligations of Empire and are quite aware of possible dangers and are consequently prepared to make sacrifices to secure our safety and maintain our greatness. But at the same time it is inevitable that there should be some difference of opinion as to what constitutes the minimum expenditure compatible with security. In regard to the Navy we have a fixed rule—the Two Power standard. But it is impossible to adopt any such rule for the Army. Our military necessities do not require that we should have an army equal to that of any two Continental Powers. We, happily, have no frontiers to protect and our standing army is only required to garrison our Colonies and restrain invasion by a force, limited in strength because it has to cross the sea.
It is clear then that we do not want an army based on a fixed ratio to Continental armies. Quite possibly it is true that our present army is too small and that we would be in a very awkward position if we were now suddenly called upon to face another such emergency as that which led to graphic with in South Africa. But, as we have said, it would probably be impossible to persuade the people of Great Britain to agree to a direct expansion of the Regular Army with the consequent additional financial burden. It was realization of this that decided Mr. Haldane upon the scheme which is now being carried out. As against Mr. Arnold Forster's objections we may quote a German Officer of high rank, who, writing recently in one of the reviews, bestowed the highest eulogy upon Mr.

Haldane's plan. This authority pointed out the absolute difference between the requirements of Great Britain and her neighbours and argued that the Territorial Army scheme would produce, in time, an army amply sufficient for Colonial garrison purposes and to protect the Home-land from invasion. On the whole we think that, while Mr.
Haldane's scheme may very possibly be imperfect in some respects, it promises to give the Empire a greater spirit of security. It will also tend to familiarise more people with the idea of military service, and thus prepare the way for some form of conscription, if it ever becomes necessary.LOCAL AND GENERAL.The Peking Government has decided to appoint Customs Officials from among officials who have been abroad, in future.The Waiwipu has been ordered at Peking to stop the alleged cruelties inflicted upon the Chinese in the Dutch Colonies.The Peking Government has decided to despatch several experts to Mongolia and Tibet to attend to the affairs relating to industries, training of troops, and education.The Acting Viceroy of Chihli has informed all the provinces that according to new laws no meeting should be allowed whenever there are more than two hundred persons.A native paper says: Taotai Lin of Amoy has protested against the frequent arrests of Chinese by the British Consul there, which is alleged to be against treaty stipulations.The Donglassteamer Haiching brought 128 Chinese to port; 309 went away on the Michael Jensen to Shanghai and Moji, 300 went to Saigon on the Houbon, and 662 on the Catherine Apat to the Straits.His Majesty the Emperor of China is suffering from pains in his legs which prevent him from walking. Imperial physician Tiao is attending the Emperor now, states a Peking telegram dated April 22.An essentially Chinese method is suggested to ascertain what advantage Chinese students who studied abroad have derived. Chang Chih-tung proposes that they should be made to write an essay on the Chinese classics.The steamer Gryfvalde which brought 6,500 tons of wheat for the Hongkong Milling Company, valued at half a million dollars, Mexican, and which was not taken delivery of has been fixed to proceed to Europe.Another stage in the progress of the movements for closing the places licensed for opium smoking in Shanghai was reached on April 20, when the whole of the licenses participated in a public drawing to decide what establishments should be shut down on July 1 in accordance with the resolution of the ratepayers to reduce the number of opium licenses by 25 per cent on that date.The "Echo de Tientsin" states that Belgium is also going to start Post-offices in treaty ports; for which purpose the present issue of Belgian stamps will be surcharged China, until a new and special issue can be made for their use. Thus another set, we presume also with a few errors, will be added to stamp-collectors albums remarks the "China Critic."It is officially admitted that on the East Coast of Aceh, a brisk trade is carried on with foreign steamers in arms and ammunition. The smuggling is effected by means of penguins. The Government measures are now being taken to despatch a vessel there for the purpose. In other words the smuggling of arms into Aceh, which was stopped at one time, has now been resumed.In commenting on the action taken in Shanghai to suppress opium dens, it is satisfactory to be able to point out to our critics in Europe and America that any stigma which might be supposed to attach to Shanghai on this subject is now in a fair way to be removed, and that may now be possible for us to suggest that those who have been so loud in their denunciations of Shanghai might devote in future some of their attention to keeping their own houses in order.A slight collision occurred between Japanese and American soldiers at a house of entertainment the other night reports the "Peking and Tientsin Times" of April 18. The Japanese wished to enter the place, but the proprietor objected, and an argument quickly resulted in a fracas. The American soldier and the Japanese came to blows, with the result that several of the former received more or less serious bayonet wounds, necessitating their removal to hospital. Some Japanese were also hurt.The "Kokumin" is in receipt of news of police interference with the forthcoming Japanese general elections, which comes from Chiba and Ibaraki Prefectures.
The authorities of these Prefectures are inclined to assist the Seiyukai candidates and to oppress the anti-Seiyukai candidates.
Persons in favour of any anti-Seiyukai candidate meeting at restaurants or tea-houses, are always dispersed by the police before they have opportunity of making definite arrangements. Thus the Government policy of controlling the movement of candidates in the election campaign as recently intimated to the Prefectural Government, those of the Seiyukai.DON'T NEGLECT A COLD.

ITEMS.

Tabbs: "I'm glad you read my poem in the new magazine. The editor is a friend of mine."
Morris: "I knew he must have been when he left your name out."

Sutor: "I have come to ask for your daughter's hand in marriage." Mr. Moterton: "So? Well, sir, can you support her in the style of motorists to which she is accustomed?"

"Did you hear about the defacement of Skinner's tombstone?" "No. What was it?" "Someone added the word 'friends' to the epitaph." "What was the epitaph?" "He did his best."

"What does that mean?" said a man, pointing to the Hebrew inscription on a synagogue.
"I cannot say, but if I had my flute with me, I might be able to play it!"

"My son wants to marry your daughter. Does she know how to cook a good dinner?" "Yes, if she gets the materials for one. Does your son know how to supply them?"

"You hardly want your overcoat on a day like this, Hopkins."
"I know; but my people are interested in a rummage sale, and when I carry my clothes about with me I know where they are."

Illegius: "Hallow, Ebony! Had any sketches accepted yet?" Ebony Stain (comic artist): "No; I've been putting up the banes of marriage. I'm determined to have something published."

"I was going to give Jinks a little friendly advice this morning."
"And didn't you?"
"No; he started to tell me how to run my affairs, and that's something I tolerate from no man."

Mother: "Why did you not scream when Hans kissed you?" Daughter: "He threatened me." Mother: "How?"
Daughter: "He said if I did he'd never kiss me again."

Said an ambitious youth one day to a young lady, "Don't you think I'd better dye my moustache?" "Dyeing the faintly visible progeny."
"I think if you let it alone it will die itself," said the lady.

That the moody Dane was a Scotsman is proved by the following passage from "Hamlet": "Hamlet (to grave-digger): 'How long will a man lie 24th earth ere he rot?' Grave-digger: 'A tanner will last you nine years.'"

Missionary: "Can you give me any information about Deacon Jones, who laboured among your people three years ago?"
Carnibal: "Well, they last I heard about him he had gone into consumption."

THE FIRES AT PEKING.

Results of the Investigation.

PEKING, April 22.
Official investigation of the recent fires here shows that they are devoid of special significance, and they are now regarded as ordinary outbreaks, with the exception of the one which occurred in the Lama Temple.
Owing to reports of thefts from this institution an inventory of its contents had been ordered. But on the day proceeding that on which the inventory was to have been taken, the fire occurred. Presumably it was a device on the part of the priests to cover up traces of their delinquencies.
The damage done by this conflagration amounted to Tls. 3,000.—N. C. Daily News.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA CURED.

SOME physicians claimed that chronic diarrhoea cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. There are incurable cases, but none so bad that they cannot be helped by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and even temporary relief can be obtained. Presumably it was a device on the part of the priests to cover up traces of their delinquencies.
The damage done by this conflagration amounted to Tls. 3,000.—N. C. Daily News.
